

FREE Training Day

Diplomas: Heritage Learning 14-19

Monday 5 July 2010 10.00 – 15.30

Tullie House, Carlisle

An opportunity to develop an awareness and understanding of the 14-19 Diploma and discover how to work more effectively with this age group

This training day will provide you with a comprehensive introduction to the Diploma. We will provide information on:

- The structure of the Diploma and its various subjects
- Opportunities for heritage organisations as learning providers
- Case studies showcasing projects undertaken between heritage organisations and schools / colleges to support the Diplomas.

A partnership project between Tullie House and William Howard School will be showcased, with teachers and pupils attending to discuss the project.

Free lunch and refreshments will be provided
