

Early Years Enthusiasm Day
November 26th 2009
St Nicholas Priory, Exeter

DRAFT PROGRAMME

10.0 – 10.20 Coffee

10.20 – 10.30 Welcome and introductions

Kate Osborne, Access Officer, Royal Albert Memorial Museum

10.30 – 11.00 Strong Foundations – how museums can enrich the Early Years Foundation Stage

Sally Jaekle, Senior Regional Adviser, Early Years

11.0 – 11.30 Key Issues for partnerships with practitioners and parents

(title to be confirmed) Sheena Wright, Lead Early Years Adviser, Devon Learning Development Partnership

11.30-11.45 Comfort break

11.45 – 12.15 The Parents as First Educators Project (PAFE) an outline of who did what and why (title to be confirmed) Jo Graham, Learning Unlimited

12.15 – 12.30 Launch of the South West Early Years network

Why, Who, What, When, and Where! Sally Jaekle and Kate Osborne

12.30 – 1.30 Lunch and networking

1.30 – 1.45 PAFE in St Nicholas Priory or the story of Robert the Rat...

Philippa Wood, Family Learning Officer, RAMM and Katharine Pringle, Senior Teacher, Westexe Children's Centre

1.45 – 3.15 Meet the PAFE Participants – delegates circulate around PAFE project representatives stationed around St Nicholas Priory.

3.15 – 3.30 ish tea and bix, evaluation of the day, thank you's and fond farewells.

RAMM

RENAISSANCE SOUTH WEST museums for changing lives

