

THE HEART OF THE MATTER: INITIAL TEACHER EDUCATION AND MUSEUM EDUCATION

Thursday 28 January 2010 at Manchester Museum

PROGRAMME

- 10.00 REGISTRATION & REFRESHMENTS
- 10.15 Welcome
Frances Sword, museum educator
- 10.45 How teachers are trained now
Philip Stephenson, senior lecturer, University of Cambridge Faculty of Education
- 11.15 Their standards; your work
Philip Stephenson
An activity to help museum educators think about their work in the context of the New Standards that lead to Qualified Teacher Status.
- 11.45 REFRESHMENTS (and move to Human Cultures Gallery)
- 11.55 The way we teach
Frances Sword & Philip Stephenson
An analysed gallery teaching session demonstrating why museum teaching methods are of particular value to trainee teachers.
- 13.00 LUNCH
- 13.45 Many ways to skin a cat
Colly Mudie, head of Norwich Museums Learning Team & Sarah Burles, education officer, Fitzwilliam Museum
Successful ITE/museum partnerships depend on a meeting of worlds and a careful matching of needs. This “warts and all” session will provide a realistic overview of the whole process and show why there is no one way of working with ITE partners.
- 15.00 Local/ITE museum initiatives
Jael Edwards, ITE development coordinator, Renaissance North West
- 15.15 Plenary
- 15.30 FINISH & REFRESHMENTS